*More than flag-waving
And song-singing,
Freedom is alive,
Exuberant, aware—
A condition not only to be
Cherished and defended,
But developed and improved.*

From the mass emerges

An individual

With original ideas

And emotions,

Modern in the styles

And habits

That reflect a new

Individual freedom.

Tradition is being

Re-examined and re-built,

With concern for tomorrow

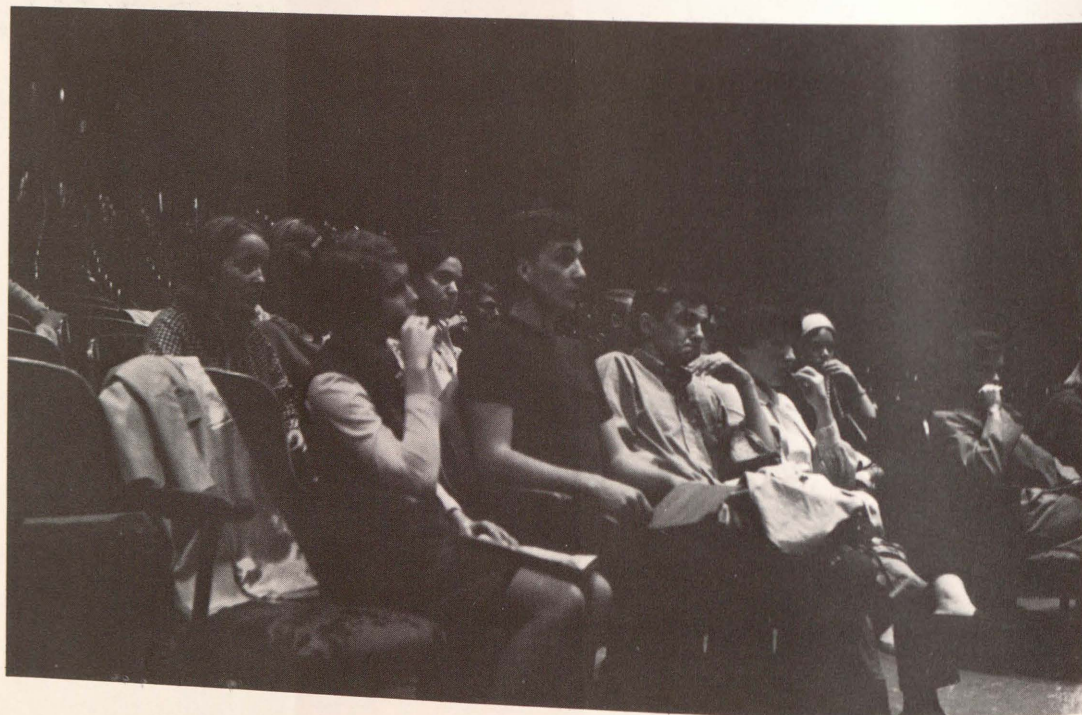

Instead of yesterday.

In today's community,

Novel ideas

Are no longer suppressed,

But encouraged.

*Freedom is not Merely governmental nor social,
National, nor simply local.*

*It has matured
To a position in which Freedom is for people.*

In our striving

And changing,

With original ideas

And new Freedoms,

We must realize

New responsibilities.

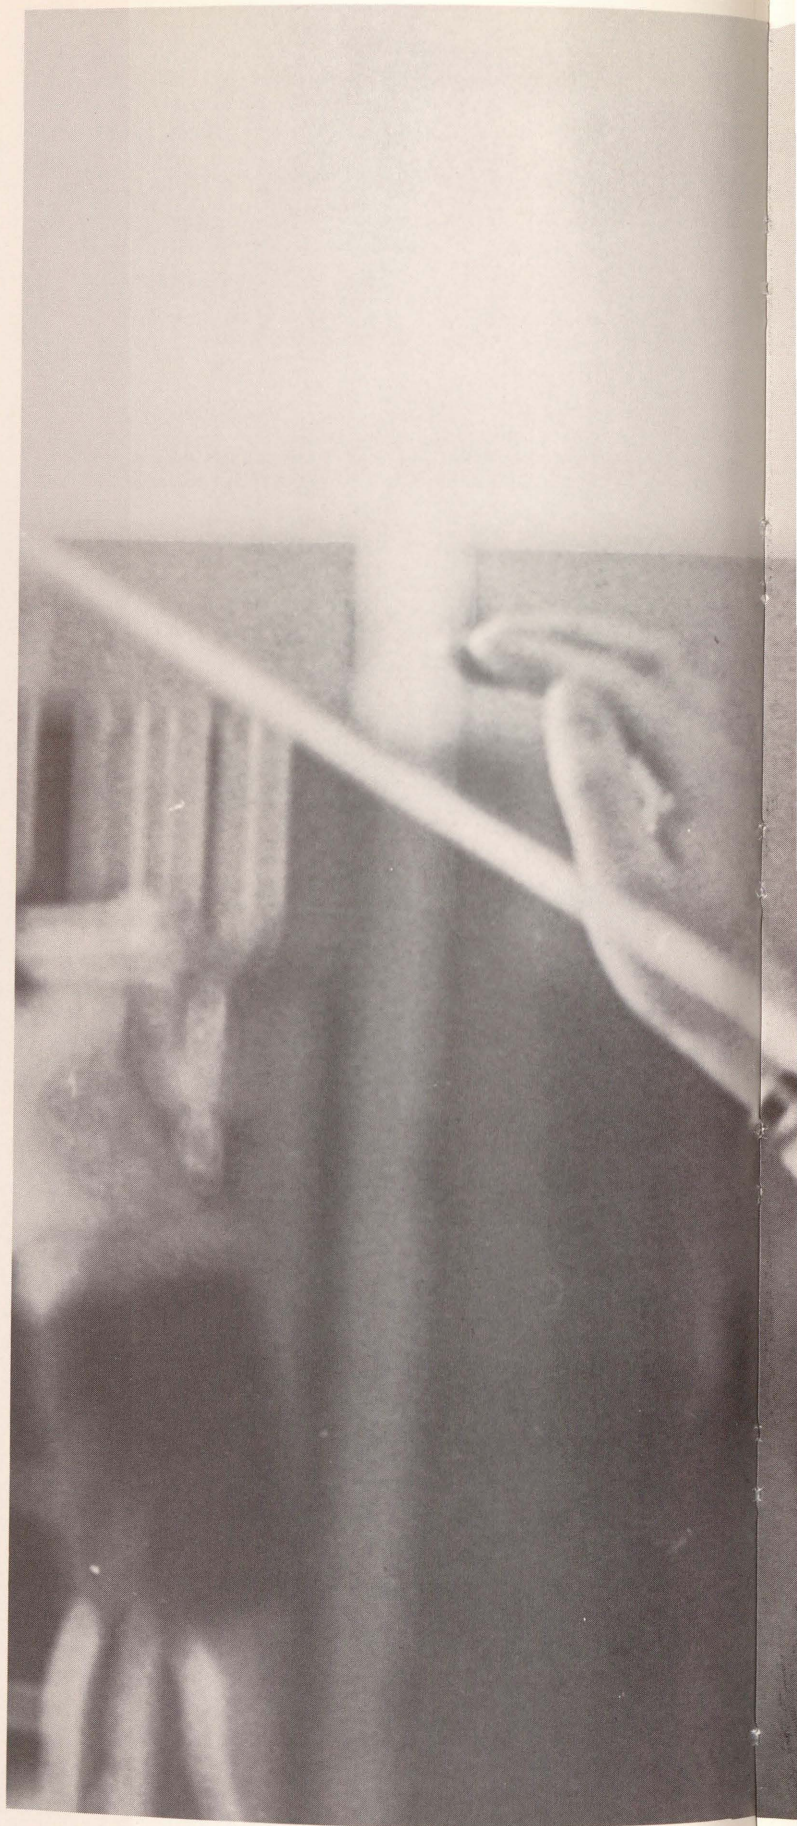

Freedom isn't free.

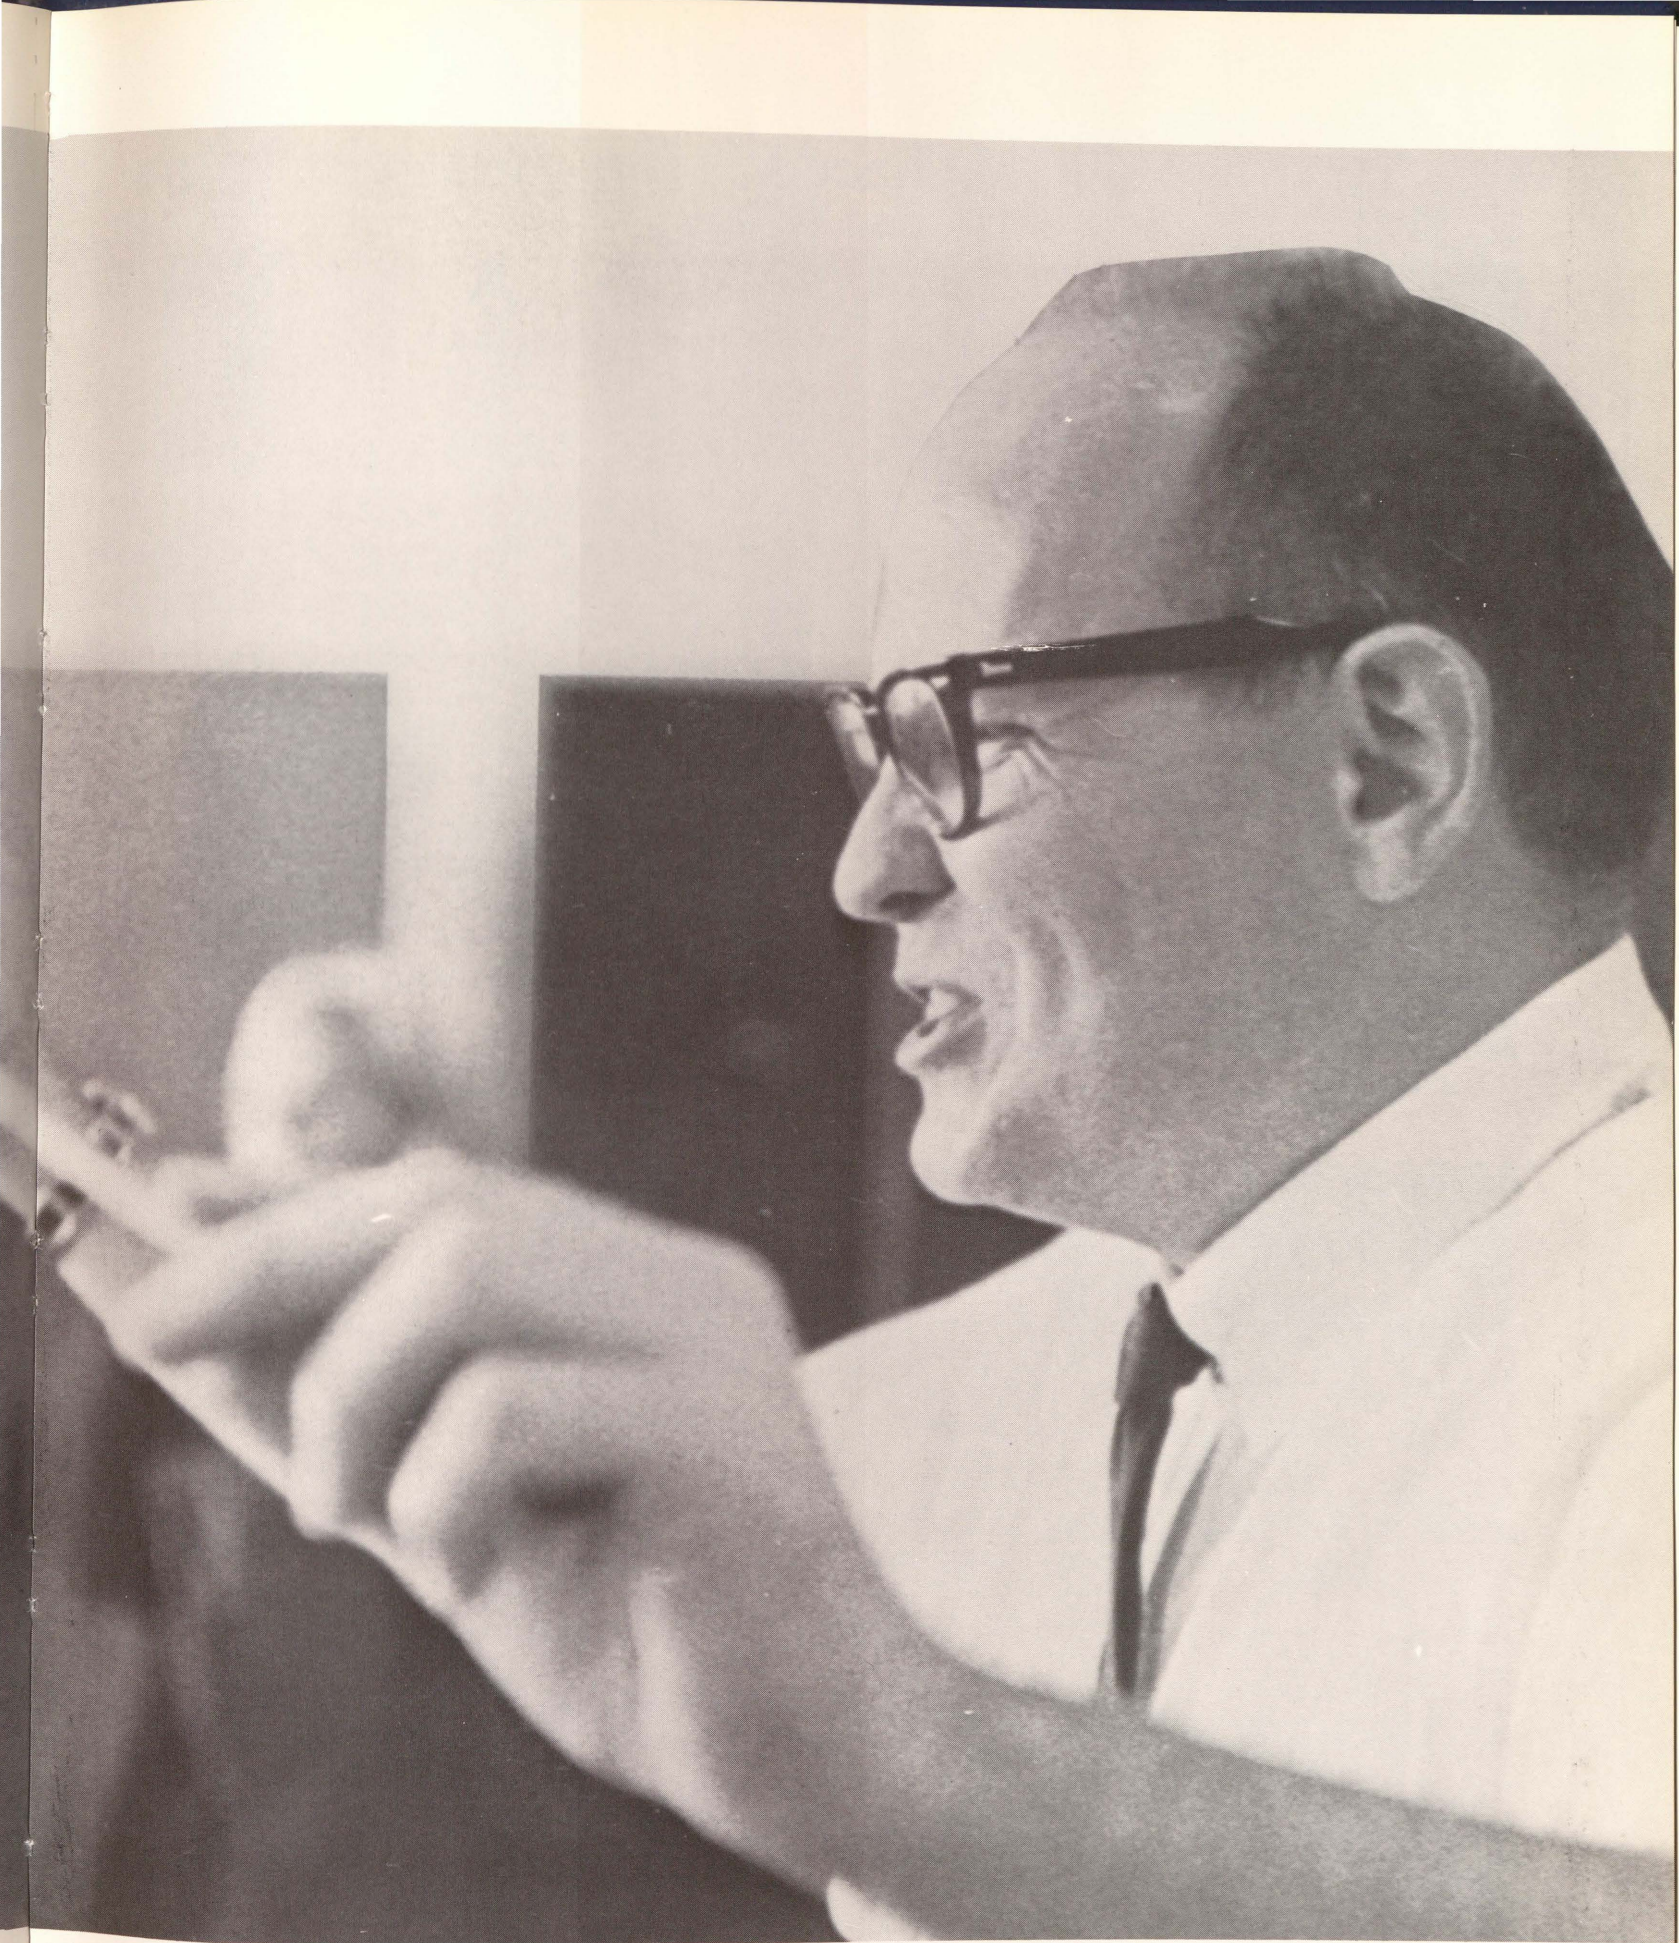

FACULTY
ADMINISTRATION

Freedom to INSPIRE

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years.

New Jobs Challenge Mr. Barron and Mr. Grossman

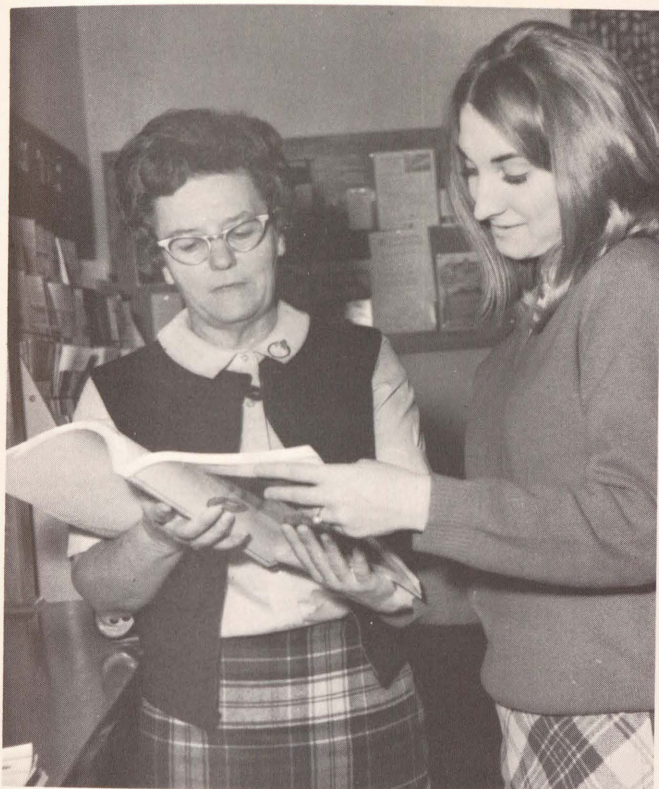

ABSENCE LISTS CONCERN Mr. Grossman and Mr. Barron as Mrs. Phyllis Cappell records more absentees.

Many changes accompanied the opening school year at Arthur Hill. Among them came the addition of a new administrative office. Mr. Emerson Grossman, former attendance counselor, was appointed to the position of assistant principal in charge of student affairs. Mr. Grossman's new duties included student eligibility, books and fines, student discipline, fire drills, and assembly seating. The registration of faculty and student cars, the maintenance of the building and grounds, and all student bus movements also came under his jurisdiction. Mr. Grossman was homecoming chairman, and was in charge of scheduling the school calendar. As an assistant principal, he issued work permits, and permits for use of the building.

Mr. George Barron replaced Mr. Grossman as attendance counselor. The keeping of student attendance records was his main responsibility. A teaching veteran, Mr. Barron was formerly a driver education teacher.

Hillites Lose Teacher to Central Administration

*Mr. William G.
Scharffe, personnel
assistant*

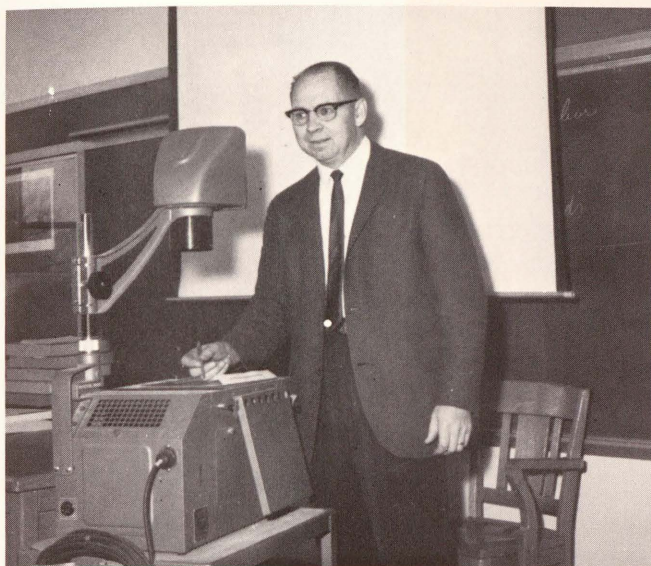

Mr. William G. Scharffe, who this September began his third year as a teacher at Arthur Hill, was appointed to the position of personnel assistant for the Board of Education. He will work under the supervision of Leonard T. Soper and be responsible for the day-to-day personnel operations including records, transcripts, employment, and recruiting. While on the Arthur Hill staff, Mr. Scharffe taught public speaking, was sponsor of the Pep Club and the Arts-Dramatics Club, and directed the school plays.

Mr. Scharffe was born in Saginaw and is a graduate of Arthur Hill High School and Michigan State University.

AT HIS FAREWELL PARTY, Mr. William Scharffe smiles quizzically at a portrait presented to him by Mr. Vito Surian, also of the English department.

Teachers Sound Off—Give Views on Students

Students form the vital part of a teacher's work day. Giving their views on students and school life in general are Mr. Edwin Schalk, government teacher; Mrs. Helen Kerns, German teacher; and Mr. Richard Thomas, mathematics teacher.

If you could initiate something into the character of each student, what would it be?

"An awareness of responsibility to other's rights and property."

Mr. Edwin Schalk

How would you define a successful student?

"A successful student is one who, in my opinion, masters subject matter, begins to learn to master himself, and leads and influences his fellow students to recognize, as he already does, that everyone, regardless of any outward differences, is his neighbor."

Mrs. Helen Kerns

What in your high school education did you find was of greatest value to you?

"Teachers expected us to do our assignments and radiated the feeling that we could."

During 1969 Spring Vacation

Portions of El Cid, the hero of Spanish literature, and Don Quixote, were read by Mr. Rowell's advanced Spanish students this year. They also wrote reports in Spanish and enacted skits. The work for first year classes was composed of basic grammar, phrases, and research reports on customs, culture, and history of Spanish speaking countries. One of the biggest projects of the year was the trip to Mexico City, Mexico, during Easter vacation. The trip was basically planned by the Spanish Club, but all Spanish students were eligible to participate.

This year Miss Ruth Eckert's third and fourth year Latin classes translated the Aeneid by Virgil. Their translations were the basis for writing modern day news reports which Miss Eckert then compiled into a newspaper.

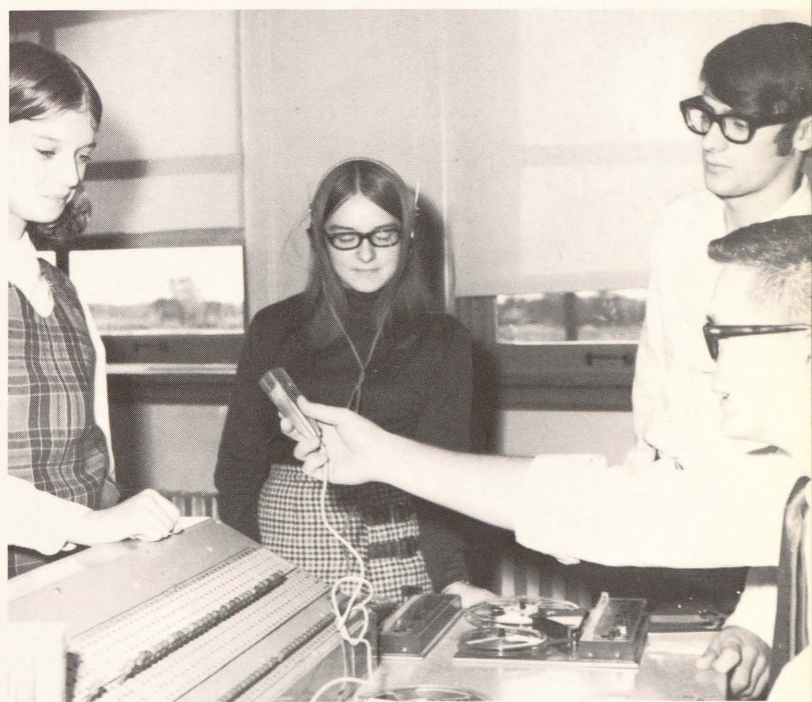

Many students in the various French classes subscribed to two French magazines, Paris Match and Bonjour, this year. Among films with French soundtracks viewed by Mrs. Murray's French classes was a film about mountain climbing in the Alps.

English Department Publishes First Magazine

JOHN JOHNSON, Mrs. Eleanor Karpicke, and Dean Ross check plans for the magazine.

Publishing a new literary magazine was made possible this year through the combined efforts of sophomore, junior, and senior English classes. John B. Johnson and Dean Ross worked together as co-editors. The staff for the magazine consisted of John Hagaman, Harry LaDronka, Merry Moor, Chris Savage, Martha Pierson, Sharon Smith, and Sally Muehlenbeck. Mrs. Eleanor Karpicke was the adviser, and Quill and Scroll Society members assisted the staff in editing the magazine. Mrs. Wylie's art students illustrated the magazine and submitted other examples of outstanding artwork.

Mr. Richard L. Thomas, Mrs. Kathi Andros, and Mr. Norman Nash joined the Hillite math department this year. Mr. Thomas, a graduate of the University of Montana, feels that, "A student is a person who does not persist in making the same errors dozens of times but gains from his experiences." Mrs. Andros' geometry class used a new textbook this year which co-ordinated algebra and geometry. A graduate of Michigan State, Mr. Nash helped his Math V class with the practical aspects of math through projects; for example, students learned to figure restaurant bills and also to fill out income tax forms.

Mr. Thomas Seidel, a student teacher at Arthur Hill, taught a calculus class equivalent to a sophomore college course to the advanced math students. The group used a college textbook.

Twenty-two "early bird scientists" met at 7:00 A.M. with Mrs. Marguerite Engle for an eight-week special science course. "Solid State Chemistry" was the title of the non-credit course offered this year to Hillites who were interested in investigating the properties of materials such as metals, glass, ceramics, and polymers. Arthur Hill was one of the fifteen areas in the nation chosen to use materials provided by the American Metallurgical Society for three laboratory exercises. Although the students received no academic credit for the eight week course, the American Metallurgical Society offered prizes for papers written, concerning knowledge gained through the experiments performed, at the completion of the course.

Civil War to Civil Rights—Hills Probe History

History of the Negro American supplemented the usual material read and discussed in history classes this year. Paperback editions of books such as Crisis in Black and White by Charles E. Silberman and other paperbacks dealing with Negro pilgrimage and civil rights provided the information.

Included in the collection were pamphlets concerning subjects such as gun control laws, the cost of space exploration, slaughter on the highways, neglect of the elderly, and civil rights. Panel discussions, held in some classes, gave students a chance to voice their opinions on these concerns of the nation.

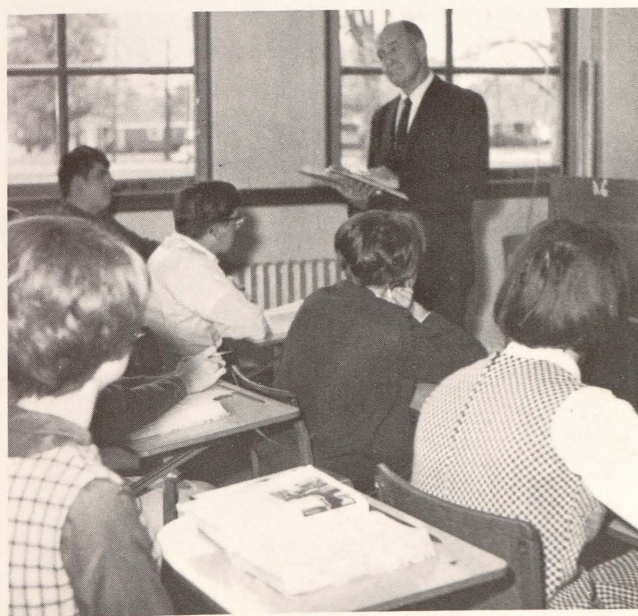

"Election-time '68" provided a topic for discussion in most classes concerning United States government. A mock election, held in late October, gave Hillites an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the voting procedures. Candidates for the Presidency were as follows: Dick Gregory, Peace and Freedom Party; Hubert Humphrey, Democratic Party; Richard Nixon, Republican Party; and George Wallace, American Independent Party.

DEBBIE RICK uses the ten-key adding-listing machine to add a column of numbers in business machines class.

Students who participated in Arthur Hill's co-operative occupational (Co-op) training program had an opportunity to earn money while in school, and also learned how to get along with people and to become more independent and responsible. Assistance in obtaining a supervised job was provided by coordinators Mr. Ray Hartman and Mr. Dwight Chisholm. The school portion of the student's training was coordinated with his job through the school-related instruction and employer visitation.

The co-op training program also provided extra-curricular activities for students who worked, through the Distributive Educational Club of Arthur Hill (D.E.C.A.H.) and Future Business Leaders. The big annual event of the two clubs combined was the co-op candy mint sale. Six thousand boxes of mints were sold in one week by the one hundred ten co-ops who participated in the sale. The money earned was used to finance the Co-op Employer Banquet held for co-ops and their employers in the spring.

Food Service, Family Living; New Courses

Food service is a new co-educational course offered to students interested in a career or employment in the food industry. By studying procedures used in commercial restaurants, the skills necessary for this type of work are introduced to Hillites. Understanding the basic food skills, learning to care for equipment, and developing safe working habits are a few of the objectives of food service.

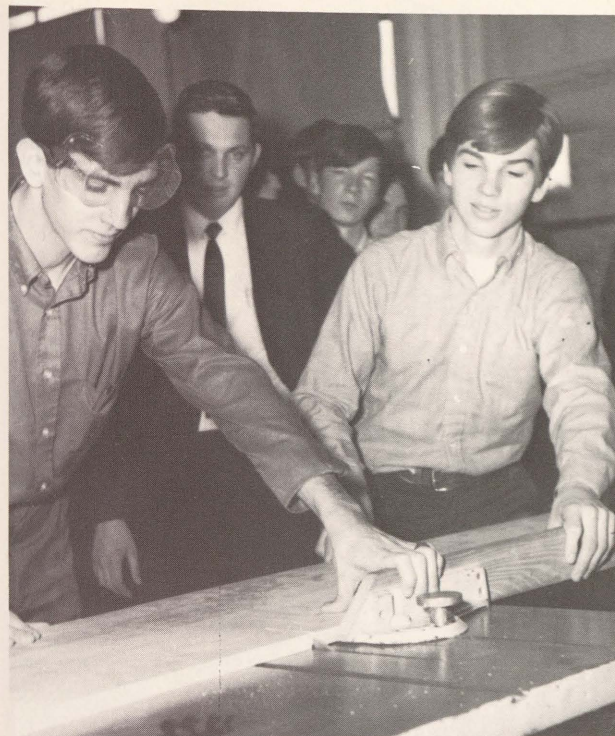

The purpose of family living class is to help young people gain perspective through an understanding of themselves and others. Topics discussed in class deal with understanding yourself, preparation for marriage and parenthood, and understanding children (emphasizing the social and psychological development of children). Among the guest speakers visiting family living classes were Lieutenants Thomas Beffrey and Kenneth Rice from the Saginaw Police Department who talked about "Teenagers and Drug Habits."

'68 All-American Award Brings Pride to News

Out of a possible 4000 points, the Arthur Hill News scored 3905 to win the All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association. News coverage, content, writing, and overall appearance was the basis for judging. Competing with thousands of high school newspapers from all parts of the United States, the Arthur Hill News was one of the few to win the All-American award. The News was also awarded a First-Place rating by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

One of the highest national honors awarded to a high school newspaper by the Quill and Scroll Society, the George H. Gallup Award, has also been given to the News for the twenty-fifth year.

The News staff helped to promote the millage campaign last year through various articles on the subject. These factual reports and editorials informed Hillites on the issues of the campaign such as expansion of elementary and secondary school and vocational programs. The News staff also used color to emphasize the events of Homecoming, Christmas, Blue and Gold Week, and Camelot in special issues.

MERLIN, the court magician, cautiously advises King Arthur.

QUEEN GUINEVERE awaits the arrival of Sir Lancelot.

“There Was a Spot for One Brief Shining Moment

THE KING and his subjects anxiously watch as Lancelot attempts to revive a knight.

STARRING in Arthur Hill's production of Camelot are Mike Anderson, Keith Spaulding, Wanita Elliott and Lawrence Ott.

... that Was Known as Camelot."

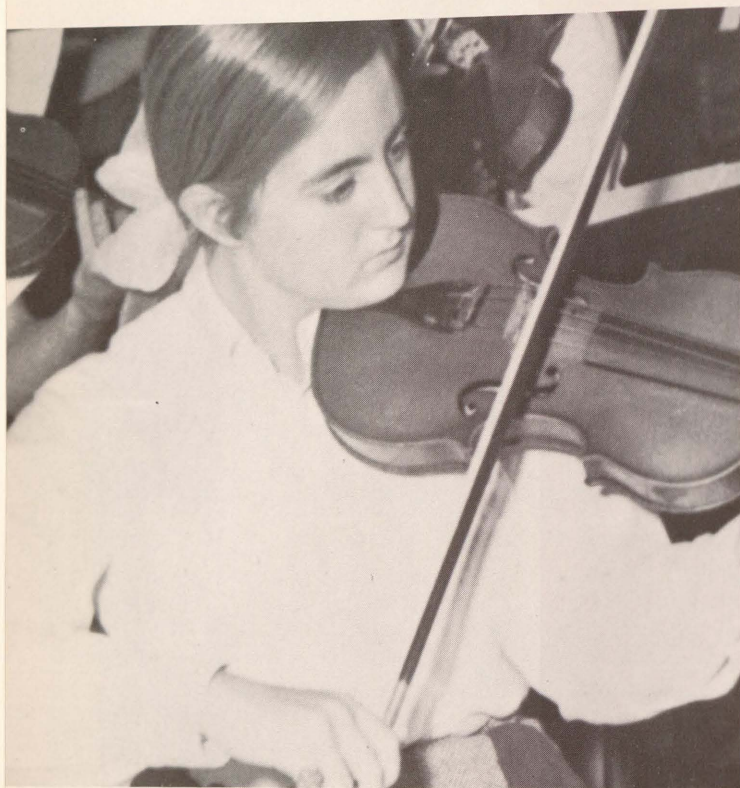

Knighthood and chivalry reappeared at Arthur Hill last April with the art, dramatic, and music departments' production of Camelot. Directing the performances were Mr. Richard Jensen, Mrs. Merle Leis, and John Frenzel.

In the legend of Camelot, King Arthur, Keith Spaulding, forms the Knights of the Round Table, who were bound together by high ideals and devotion to their code of chivalry. All is happy until Queen Guinevere, Wanita Elliott, falls in love with Sir Lancelot, Lawrence Ott. Guinevere is torn between her loyalty to the king and her love for Lancelot.

Arthur becomes disillusioned as Mike Anderson, playing Modred, Arthur's illegitimate son, comes, bringing strife and dishonor in hopes of gaining the crown. Arthur regains his hopes when Tom of Warwick, John Mulder, wishing to become a Knight of the Round Table, presents himself at a battle in France. Arthur tells him to return to England and not to "Let it be forgot that once there was a spot, for one brief shining moment that was known as Camelot."

SIR LANCELOT proclaims his loyalty to King Arthur.

Becomes New Orchestra Director.

"I believe in music". Those were the words of Mr. David Austin, Arthur Hill's new orchestra director. Mr. Austin, who received his bachelor's degree in music from Colorado College, played with the Cincinnati Symphony and traveled throughout the country with other professional orchestras, finally deciding that teaching was the profession for him. He felt that teaching was the most rewarding way of sharing his musical talents. Helping students discover music and what they could do with it was Mr. Austin's main objective. He wanted to make his students become aware of all music so they could learn to appreciate and understand every phase of this art.

Concertmaster for the orchestra this year was Suzy Cook. The orchestra's performance schedule included numerous concerts, beginning with the Homecoming assembly. The orchestra participated in many pop concerts, the school musical, and the Christmas assembly, presenting a wide range of music by such composers as, the well known Johann Sebastian Bach and George Fredrick Handel as well as newer composers such as Leroy Anderson and Claude Debussy.

NANCY KAMMER'S and Debra Mills' rented costumes add to the play's seventeenth century look.

Talent, and Teamwork

Seventeenth century doctors, a pampered hypochondriac, and scheming women, highlighted Moliere's play The Imaginary Invalid, presented by the Arts-Dramatics Club at Arthur Hill on November 8th and 9th. The play satirized seventeenth century medical practices.

The Imaginary Invalid, a classic French play, features seventeenth-century hypochondriac Monsieur Argan, Thomas Smith, who has been victimized by his doctors and his apothecary. To receive free medical service, Argan attempts to "marry off" his daughter Angelica, Andrea Garwood, to a Doctor Thomas Diaforus, Thomas Armstrong.

Other characters in the play include Toinette, Nancy Kammer, one of the more humorous personalities, who tries to prevent the marriage between Angelica and Doctor Thomas Diaforus so that Angelica may have the chance to marry her true love, Cleante, Keith Spaulding. Toinette also succeeds in proving to Argan that his wife Beline, Debra Mills, doesn't really love him and only wants his money.

"I'M A VERY SICK MAN," declares Thomas Smith as "The Imaginary Invalid."

When Bill Palasty was asked his favorite art medium, he responded, "Tempera paints. That is one thing I like to paint in. You can mix some shades right on the paper."

Debe Brown, a senior, plans to major in art at the University of Michigan or Western Michigan University. Watercolor is her favorite media "because of the soft, interesting results."

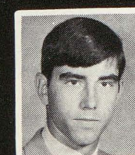

Joyce Koehler enjoys pencil sketching, "in black and white with lines and contrast." She feels that sketching is an easy and convenient way of expressing herself.

Merry Moor is attempting to develop skills in many mediums. She admires the artist, Andrew Wyeth, for "his subtle, realistic style and shadowing techniques". Merry hopes to follow an art career.

Dan Palmer is a junior extremely interested in sculpture and the construction of three dimensional objects. He enjoys working with ink washes and experimenting with new media.

Pumpkin Protection! Y-Teens Sell Insurance

New this year was Halloween insurance which was sold by Y-teens to all who were wary of pranksters. This was sold for seventy-five cents to most, and for one dollar and a half to high-risk clients. One of the many activities undertaken by the Y-teens last year was a toothbrush sale. Dupont nylon toothbrushes sold three for a dollar. A slumber splash party with refreshments was held in November at the Young Women's Christian Association building. Y-teens staged many community projects monthly, including a visit to an orphanage and a Christmas party for senior citizens.

Hi-Y, the service club connected with the Young Men's Christian Association, played a basketball game with the WSAM radio disc jockeys to raise funds for new cheerleaders' outfits, and for a new podium for the auditorium.

Pep Club Helps Finance Cheerleaders' New Garb

After being informed of the poor condition of the varsity cheerleaders' outfits and of the cheerleaders' campaign to earn money for new ones, the Pep Club, headed by senior Linda Tewes, decided to give the cheerleaders $300 toward the purchasing of them. The Pep Club earned this money from various activities, including the selling of programs at games and sponsoring dances. Again this year the Pep Club decorated the stage for the homecoming queen and her court and made the posters that were in the halls urging support of the teams.

Another good year was enjoyed by the Ushers Club as the membership again numbered 44. The high point of this year's duties was the musical, Brigadoon, in April. The girls also ushered at the play, The Imaginary Invalid, The Pops Concert, The Barber Shop Concert, and the Christmas Concert. At the end of the year the ushers worked at such senior activities as Commencement and Vespers.

New Swim Club, Mini-Bubbles, Forms at A.H.H.S.

MINI-BUBBLES Paula Latty, Sue Steeves, Debbie Graham, and Barb Burt form a star.

With a new school year came a new swim club, the Mini-Bubbles. Two new teachers, Mrs. Eleanor Newby and Miss Jill Applegate, organized the swim club. Try-outs were held in October, and of the nearly sixty girls who tried out, twenty were chosen. The girls practiced such things as stars, formed by a number of girls working together; and the ballet leg, a stunt done by a single girl floating on her back with her leg pointed upward.

Drill Team membership went to eighteen girls this year as ten new sophomores, juniors, and seniors were added. They performed with colored pom-poms and routines set to marches and popular music.

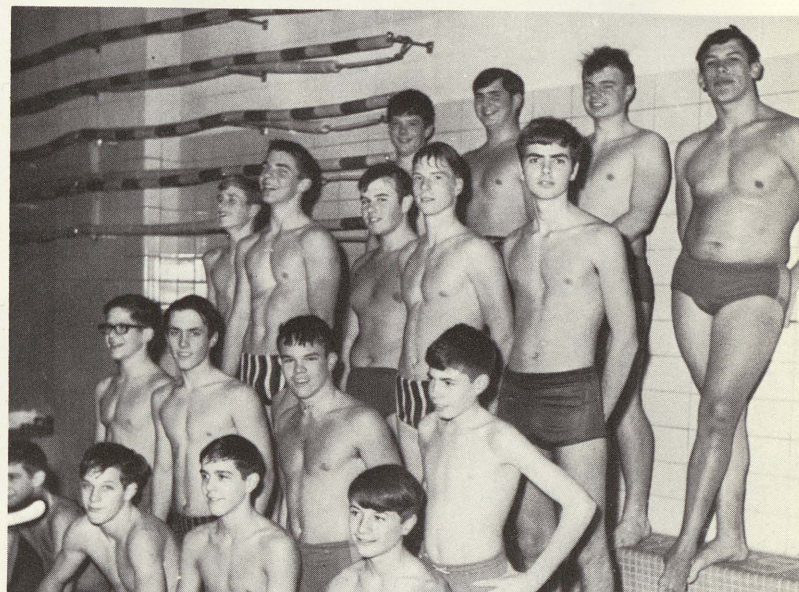

Teaching the float, crawl, backstroke, and many other fundamentals of swimming and diving to the swimming classes of Arthur Hill was the job filled by Swim Aids.

Witches and ghosts of Hallowe'en opened the new season for the Girls' Athletic Association at their kick-off Hallowe'en party. Members played other schools in such games as volleyball and basketball; and many had interests in individual sports, such as skiing and swimming.

Handicapped children at Handley School were helped by members of the Future Teachers Club. The Future Teachers helped the children with lunch, told them stories, and played games to make their lunch time happier.

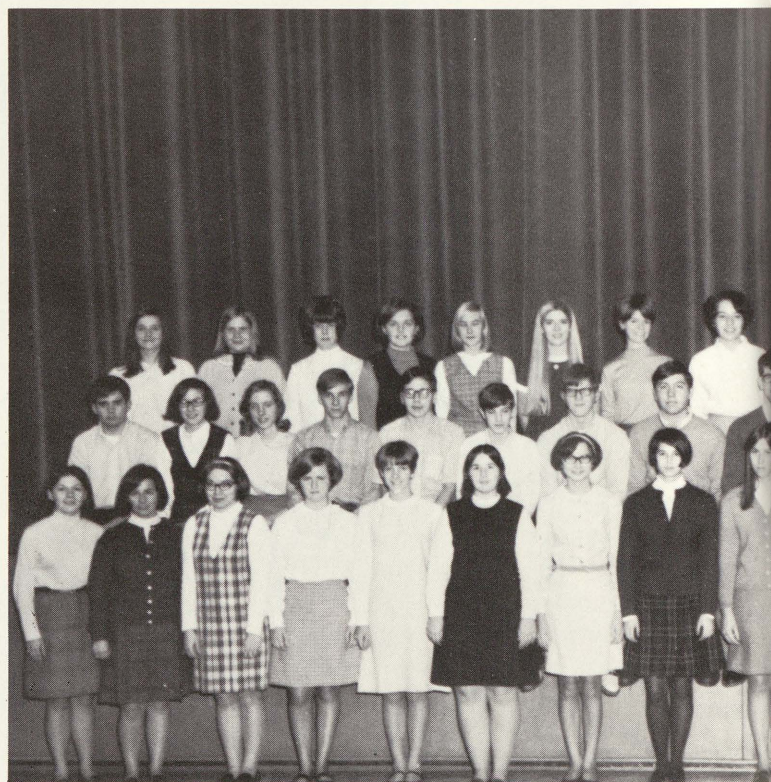

Two clubs stemmed from science interest: Biology and Natural Science Club, and the Research Club. The Biology and Natural Science Club, which is the largest of the science clubs, went on field trips, and had guest speakers.

D.E.C.A.H., whose members work in stores cooperating with the school, is split up into two groups. Mr. Ray Hartman, who founded the group in 1951, realized that with the increasing size of the club, there had to be another adviser. Mr. Dwight Chisholm, the advisor of office training, and Mr. Hartman, who manages distributive education, have worked on many projects. Public relations and the mint sale are among the most important.

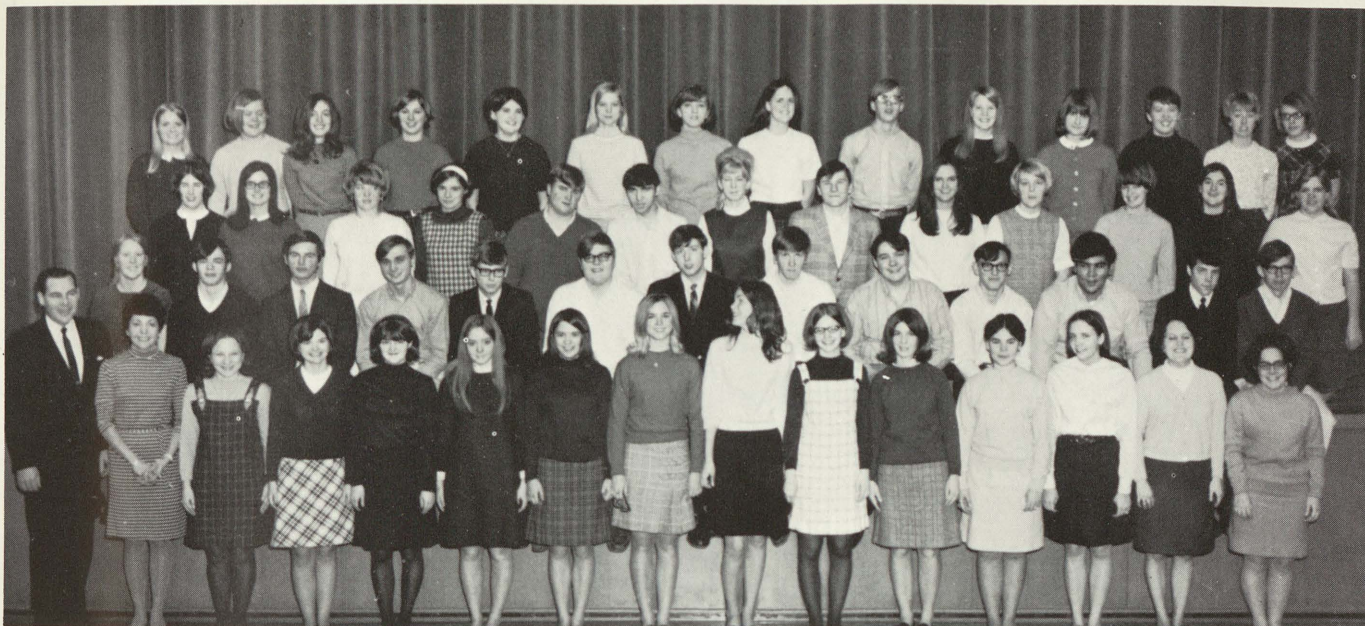

The Future Physicians Club met monthly at local hospitals to hear lectures given on the medical profession.

Ten "acting points" were required for any actor to join the Thespians, the National Honorary Society of Dramatics. These points were obtained by working on makeup, stage, acting, lights, or any of the other duties involved in stage work, but three of the points were required in actual active performance. A club with similar interest, the Arts Dramatics club, also assisted in productions.

Using the first year debaters, the Arthur Hill Debate squad showed enthusiasm as they took fourth place in the valley. The topic of this year's debate was, "Resolved: The U.S. should adopt a system of compulsory service for all citizens." Site of Yearly Trip

In addition to the yearly ski trip to Holiday Hills in Traverse City, Mrs. Harrison, the Ski Club advisor, planned day trips to Caberfae, Ski-Line, and Bintz's Apple Mountain. Winners of the ski races at Holiday Hills were: Wally Brechtelsbauer, Marsha Dustin, Paula Dargie, Kathy Lafferty, Sue Manning, John Petzo, Pat Ruhl, and Gail Schultz. Movies were also shown demonstrating first aid and basic skills by beginning skiers as well as experts, while previewing the top slopes. A one dollar membership fee was required and a badge could also be purchased. Officers of this year's Ski Club were: Bo Morley, president; Joan Glass, vice-president; and Patty Ruhl, secretary-treasurer.

Strikes, spares, open frames: all of these things were being discussed last year at the Stardust Lanes, as the Bowling Club held its meetings there. Every other Wednesday bowlers met and bowled in leagues that were within the club. Members bowled after school until six o'clock. Mr. Scherzer was the advisor of the Bowling Club.

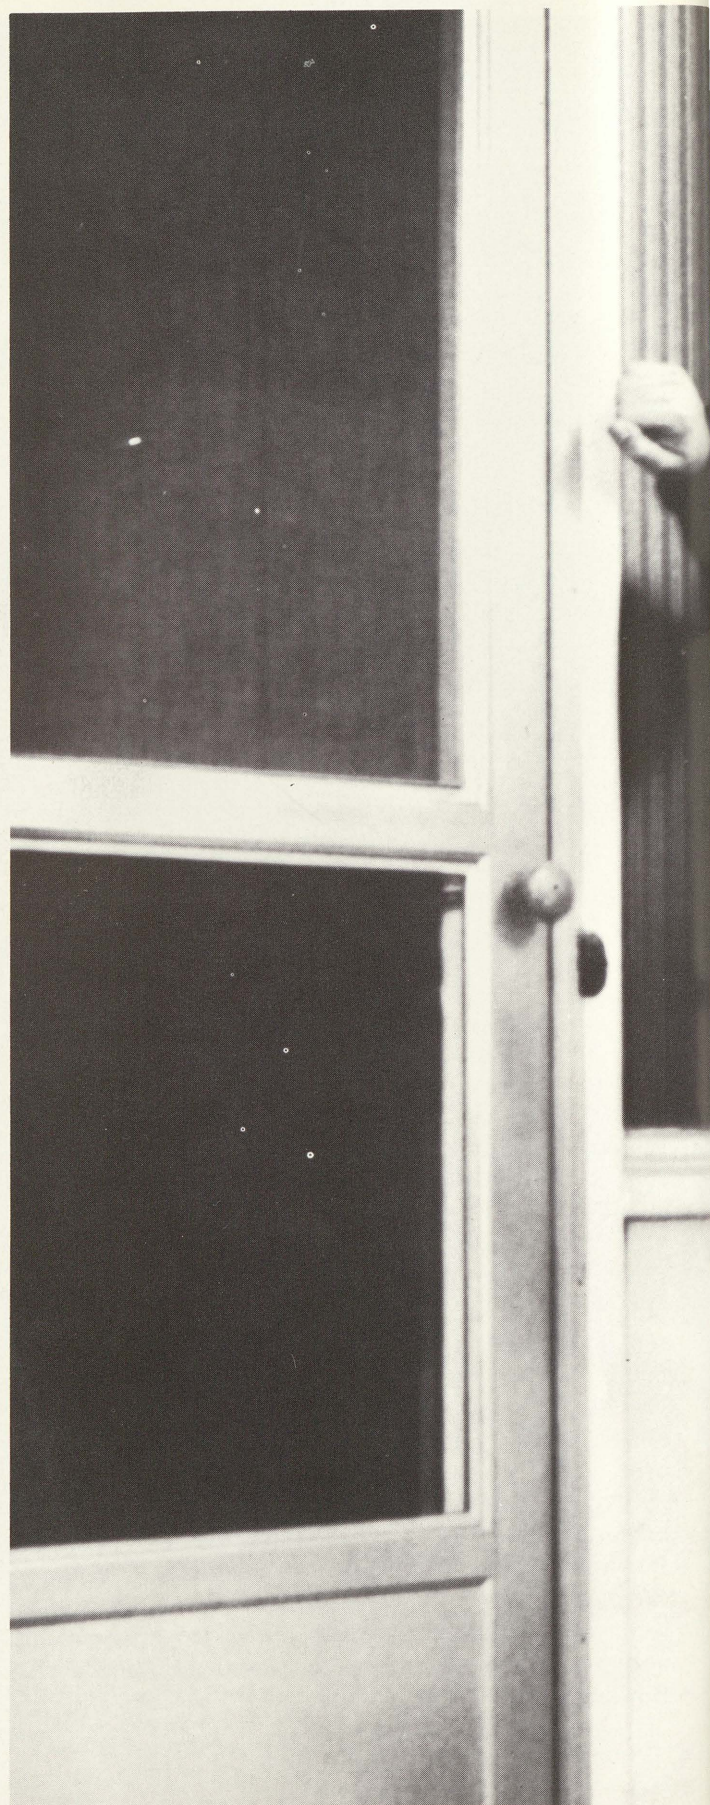

HOPING for another strike, Bob Rice steps forward for his turn.

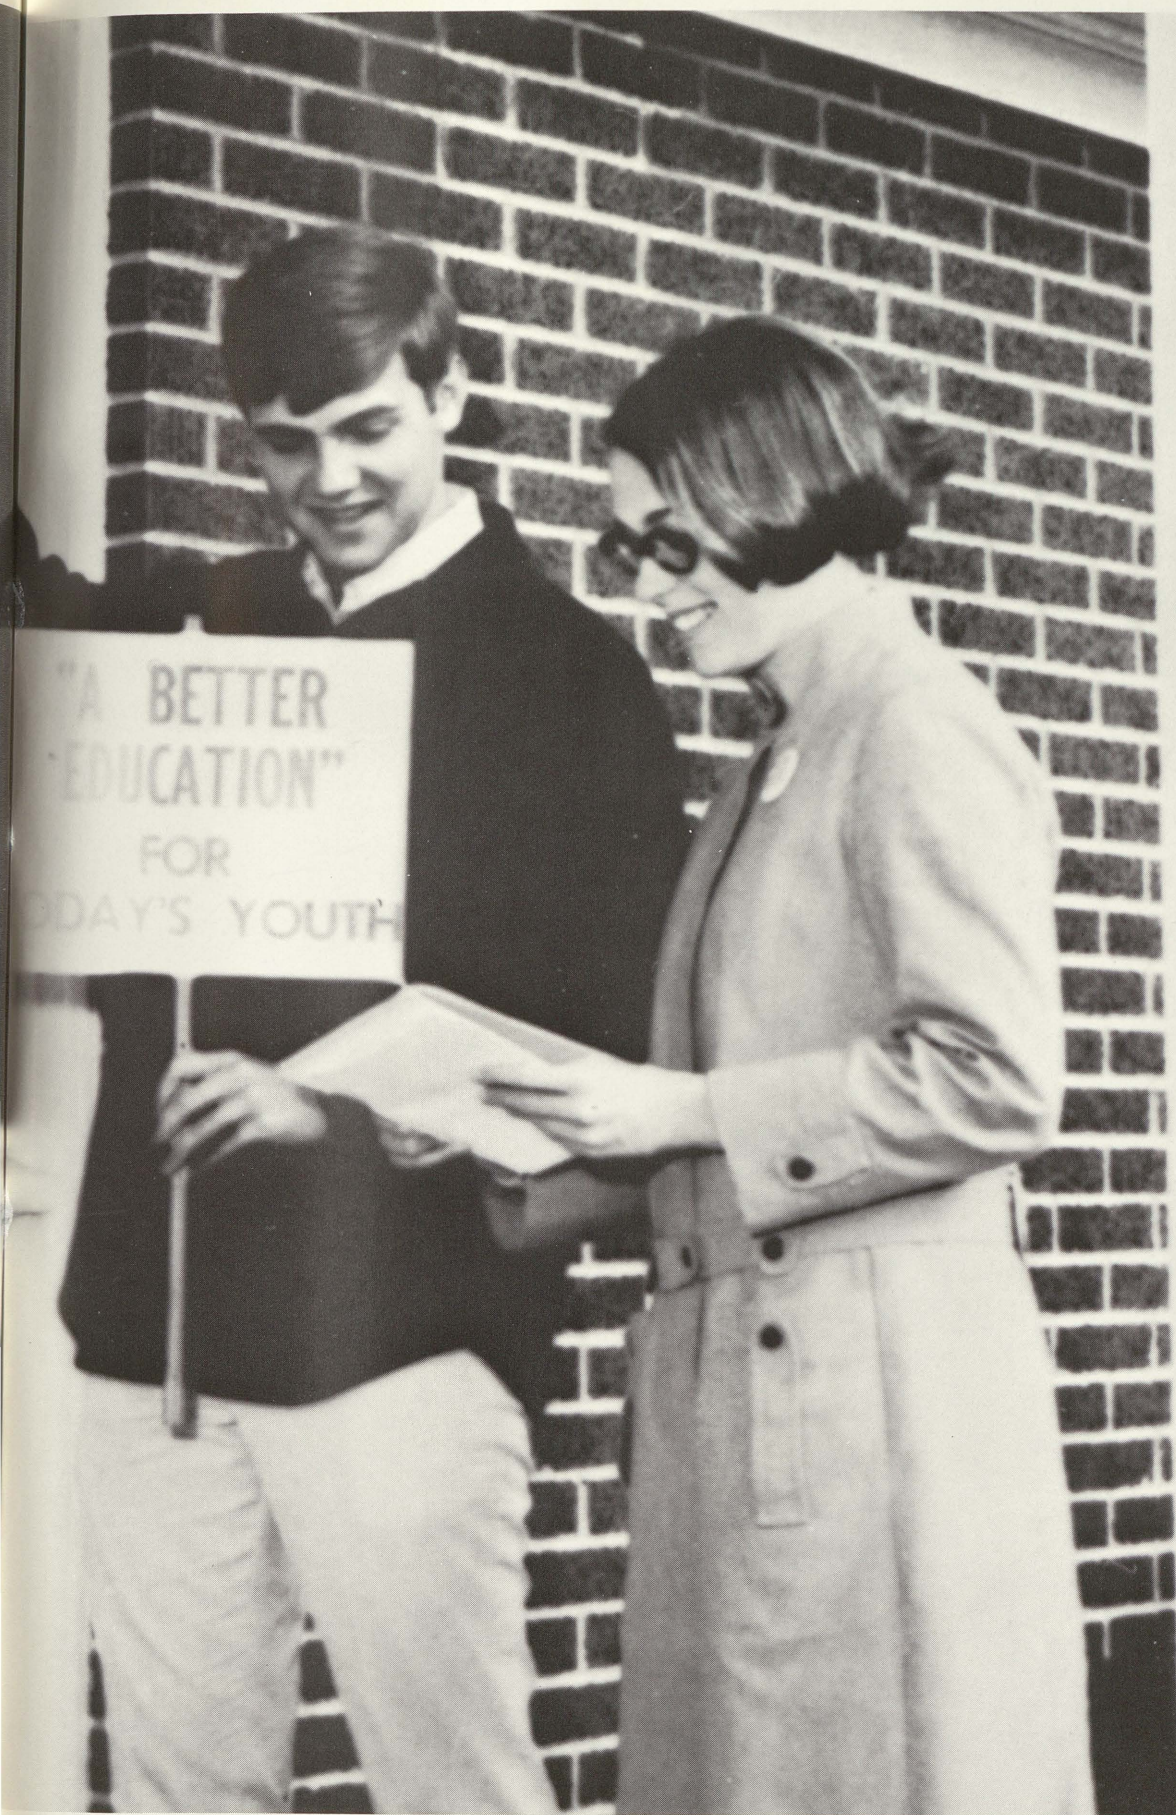

UNDERCLASSMEN

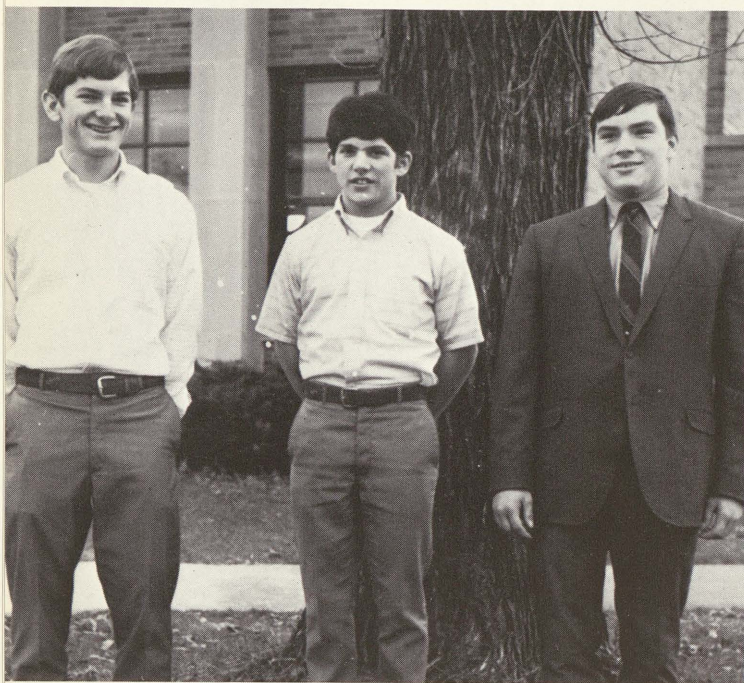

Freedom to FULFILL

“Human freedom is . . . an achievement by man, and, as it was gained by vigilance and struggle, it can be lost by indifference and supineness.”

Harry F. Byrd

SERVING as junior class officers are Richard Miller, secretary-treasurer; Peter Stark, vice-president; and Robert White, president.

STUDENT LIFE

Freedom to ENJOY

"Not to enjoy one's youth when one is young is to imitate the miser who starves behind his treasures."

EMPTY CLASSROOMS and silent halls echo the departure of seniors while awaiting the arrival of new upperclassmen to fill their places.

RUSHING FROM THE COMBINED GYMS, seniors express enthusiasm over newly-acquired caps and gowns.

Originating during the Boy's S.O. campaign, the 1969 Tabernacle Marching Band caught on to the imagination of spirit-minded Hillites. John Holmgren, Mike McDonald, Roger Borchard, Mike Peikert, Beau Morley, Charlie Woodward, and John Hagaman, who participated in lunch hour skits during the campaign, demonstrate (top right) how to play a kazoo, the band's chief instrument. Jim Medler (lower left) suggested the name of Hillite Tabernacle Honors Marching Band and was chosen as drum major by the other twenty-five members.

Nicknames (as shown in roster) and imaginative costumes were important parts of the group's format. Modeling the official uniform, consisting of white socks, rolled-up pant legs, and individual innovations, Tabernacle Band members Ron Filiatraut, John Morello, Bob Rice, Bruce Pollard, John Hagaman, Mike Voss, and Roger Borchard (middle right) wait for the signal to perform a drill at one of the pep assemblies in which the group appeared.

Student Council Efforts

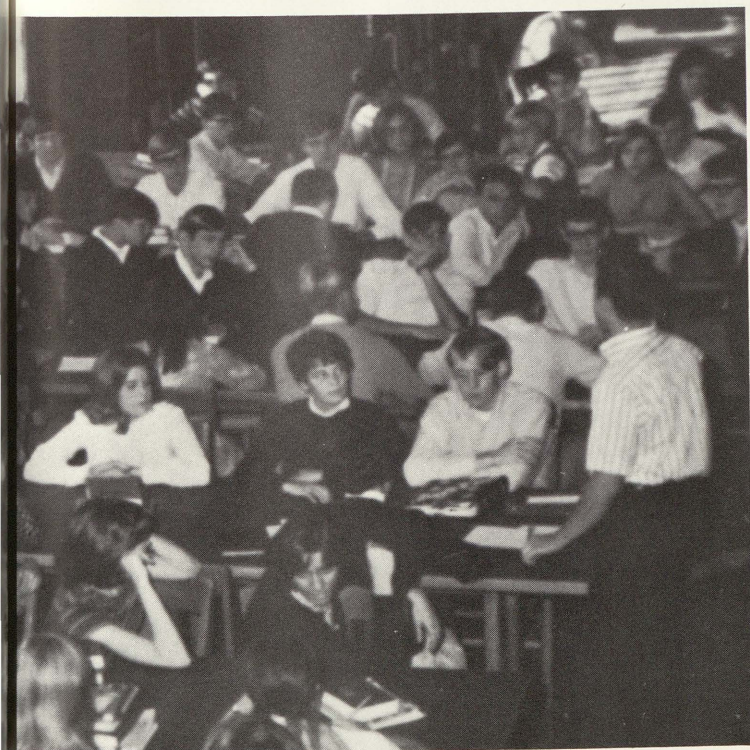

Forming the Action Committee was part of a plan to enable students to work more closely with the administration this year. Composed of student volunteers, this group investigated new ideas, such as free study periods for seniors, before presenting them to the Student Council. The basic idea behind free periods for seniors was to teach them to budget their time as they would have to do in college. Seniors used room 129 as a lounge, or they were permitted to leave the campus without cars. Teachers were also available for consultation.

The Student Council sponsored a mock presidential election where the students chose Richard Nixon for president and vetoed a Vietnam bombing halt. Hillites also affirmed that the voting age should be lowered to eighteen.

Officers for the 1968-69 Student Council were Steve Kelly, president; Dave Bird, vice-president; Phyllis Walch, secretary; and Pat Ruhl, treasurer.

Majorette Captains Twirl Batons of Fire

Adding a thrill to half-time at the football game with Saginaw High, majorette co-captains Pam Shoskey and Cindy Hasso, wearing blue sequin costumes, twirled batons of fire. Majorettes for the 68-69 school year were Nancy Kelly, Cathy Louks, Peggy Russell, and alternates Jean Kricher and Wendy Westlund. Junior Glenn Duncan and senior Frank Sigourney served as drum majors under the leadership of Mr. Richard Jensen, band instructor.

New kicks and spreads helped to make familiar cheers unique for this year's cheering section. "F-I" was one cheer to undergo a facelifting. The varsity squad changed the final spread to an ending "C" jump, which is a backbend while in the air. Varsity cheerleaders were Jill Fowler, Nancy Pieschke, Martha Pierson, Pat Ruhl, and Phyllis Walch. The squad was headed by captain Anita Lewis. Junior varsity and sophomore teams were supported by JV cheerleaders Lou Ellen Beuthin, Kim Hise, Linda Schultz, Mary Jane Walch, Karla Zaggy and Elaine Fisher, captain.

Connie Meyer Elected 1968 Homecoming Queen

HUGGING KAREN WILHELM, newly-elected Homecoming Queen Connie Meyer expresses unbelievable joy through tears.

Twinkling eyes and a contagious smile characterized Arthur Hill's 1968 Homecoming Queen. Connie Meyer was chosen from twenty-three candidates to reign on Friday, October 11, and she was officially crowned at the Coronation Assembly one week later, preceding the football game with Flint Northern and later the Homecoming Dance.

Anita Lewis and Dana Preston were selected as attendants. Members of the court were Sandy Cox, Nancy Neuhaus, Sara Noble, Martha Pierson, Marcia Robertson, Mary Rossow, Linda Tewes, and Phyllis Walch.

Presiding in a "Somewhere" theme at the assembly, Connie and her court sang "Somewhere" from the play West Side Story. The queen's throne was a satin swing suspended from garlands of paper flowers.

In addition to providing the queen's court with corsages for the dance and the traditional long-stemmed mums at the assembly, the school sponsored a dinner at the Amerwood Restaurant in the girls' honor.

THE CROWDED GYM is a picture of re-awakened interest in school activities as Hillites and Douglas MacArthur students dance at a post-game "happening."

Pep Club Sponsors Series of After-Game Dances

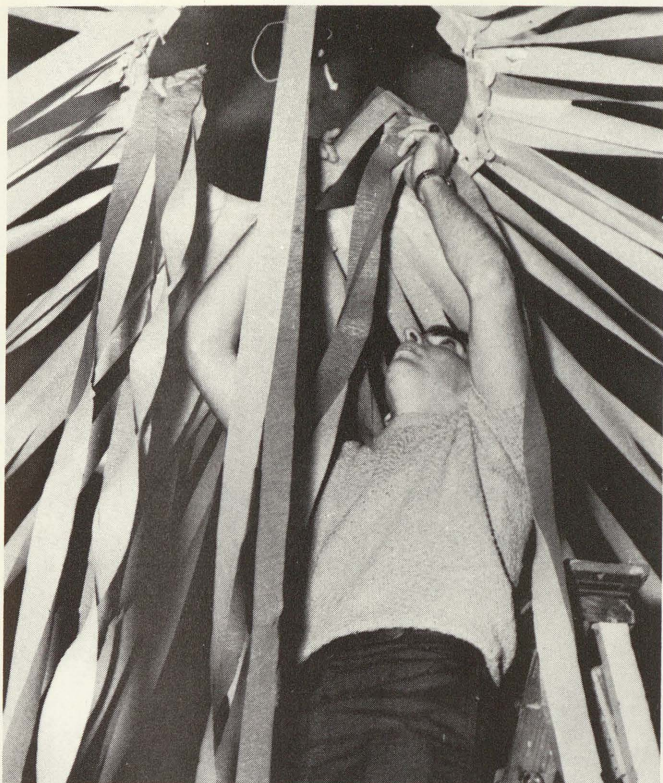

SENIORS Jim Schroeder and Ralph Byron make use of the opportunity to unwind at the dances, with hundreds of other Hillites.

"Somewhere" and "Kick-off-'68" were just two of the many dances enjoyed by Hillites this year. "Kick-off-'68" was the first dance of the football season, sponsored by the Pep Club with music provided by the Cottonwright Group.

"Somewhere" was the theme for the 1968 Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Arthur Hill Student Council. Hillites and their dates danced to the music of the Ferris Wheel. Senior Dean Ross was the general chairman of the dance, with John Holmgren and John Hagaman entertainment chairmen and Jane Markey and Kay Kaufman in charge of decorations.

A special dance featuring the Amboy Dukes was organized by the combined efforts of the Arthur Hill and Douglas MacArthur student councils. This dance was held on November 28 in the MacArthur gym.

Homecoming Nets Lumberjacks Best Score: 7—7

It was a frustrating season for the Lumberjacks and first year coach Dick Syring. The Hillites started the season looking forward to a moderate success in the Valley. A new varsity coaching staff of Joe Flynn (line) and Marv Rettenmind (backs) assisted Coach Syring and saw the return of twelve lettermen to add a little experience to the small and not exceptionally fast squad. The first loss with Flint Southwestern, 32—0, foreshadowed the entire hopeless season. The courageous Arthur Hill gridders had a rash of injuries which required a few players to play 48 minutes a game without rest. The annual clash with Saginaw High raised some hopes until the 27—6 blow caused them to crash. Worst of all, the Hillites finished with an overall record of 0—8—1 and ended up in the Saginaw Valley League basement with a 0—7—1 mark.

The only favorable remarks were of the good weather conditions and surprisingly high morale of the team. "The kids were really fired up," commented Coach Dick Syring.

JV Team Grabs Little Brown Jug on Hallowe'en

Coach Visuri's junior varsity football team won the Little Brown Jug in the annual battle with Saginaw High's Trojans after a brutal running attack. The 32-19 victory once again returned the Jug to Arthur Hill after the Trojans had held it for two successive years.

The Little Brown Jug series began in 1922. Of 46 games played, the Trojans won 23 and the Hills 21 with 3 ties.

The Hillites earned a very good season record having had 5 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie.

SKILL, strength and agility is used to pin an opponent as John Mertz tries to seek an advantage over his adversary.

Millage cutbacks last year forced Arthur Hill to discontinue its wrestling team. The disadvantage of the loss caused the Hillite grapplers to accept the worst defeat in the school's history in the hands of powerful Flint Southwestern, 52—0.

First year coach Jon Harpst started out with one hundred and twelve wrestling candidates and formed a hard-working twenty-two man squad headed by juniors Bob Siebel and Carl Portner. The team included only three seniors, George Francis, Joseph Mochen and Chuck Carter.

The Lumberjacks picked up four points in the district meet and altogether ended up with a 2—11, won-loss record, the two wins coming from meets with Bridgeport. Coach Harpst commented that the team fell behind its opponents in two main areas: wrestling experience and physical maturity. However, he is looking forward for a successful season next year noting that he should have some experience coming from eighteen returning wrestlers.

Hillite swimmers celebrated their 250th dual meet victory over Bay City Central with a large blue and yellow cake for Coach Donald Morey. The win gave Arthur Hill a 27 year dual meet record of 250 wins, 30 losses, and 4 ties.

For the first time in twelve years Arthur Hill did not win its own Arthur Hill Relays. However, they successfully torpedoed all other competition with the exception of the last rival, Douglas MacArthur, who sunk the Hillites, 57—48. The loss blasted the chance for a perfect dual meet record so the Hillites ended with 12 wins and 1 loss.

Individual champions were: Bill Brooks, backstroke; Bruce Neymeiyer, 400 yard freestyle; Bob Schoen, 200 and 160 yard individual medley; Ralph Byron, 100 yard butterfly; Dave Holnagel, 400 yard freestyle. The teams of: Bob Schoen, John Sheets, Bob Wilhelm and Bruce Neymeiyer, 400 yard freestyle relay; Bill Brooks, Bruce Leeson, Ralph Byron and Bob Schoen, 200 yard medley relay; Bill Brooks, Bruce Leeson, Ralph Byron and John Sheets, 160 yard medley relay.

High Wins the War.

The second cross country meet against Saginaw High this year saw Arthur Hill lose again, but also saw junior Dean Flora win the individual crown with a time of 11:02 to beat Saginaw High's runner-up by nine seconds.

This year's team was young, and most of its members saw action for the first time. Coach Edward Petzko was encouraged by the performance of the juniors and sophomores on the team. "Next year looks brighter," commented Coach Ed Petzko. "We'll have the experience we lacked this year."

In 1968, to avoid deficit spending due to a millage defeat, Arthur Hill was left only three sports, football, basketball, and baseball. However, sports fans can look up and cheer once more. The millage was passed last summer and the school board has restored the full sports program of football, cross-country, swimming, basketball, wrestling, baseball, golf, tennis, and track.

RUNNERS, SPECTATORS, AND JUDGES are all anxious to see the records at the end of a run.

My diploma is opening the door to an interesting job at MBT say Denise Hoteska, Nancy Adams, and Leslie Carrall.

That's making an education go to work for you . . . and it does at Michigan Bell. I know, because I plan on working at MBT after graduation.

Michigan Bell needs people for all kinds of fascinating jobs like Telephone Operators, Key Punch Operators, Typists, and Service Representatives. Jobs with a future in the exciting field of telephone communication. So stop by soon and start your education working for you.

I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers of society but the people themselves . . .

Thomas Jefferson

Freedom is neither dead nor dying. It is very much alive, not simply in government or history books, but in people. The wildly enthusiastic youth of today are becoming increasingly aware of people. Hopefully, youth, like freedom, will mature to a point not merely of simple tolerance, but to a point of active and intense concern for the rights and honor of others. With this new sensitivity, youth will prove to be a "safe depository of the ultimate powers of society."
